Chrysan Industries Named “Fast 100 Asian American Business Awards 2018”

Washington D.C. - On May 31, 2018, US Pan Asian American Chamber of Commerce (USPAACC) hosted the 2018 CelebrAsian Procurement and Business Conference at Bethesda North Marriott Hotel and Conference Center in Bethesda, Maryland. For more than 32 years, USPAACC serves as the country’s largest and most established Pan Asian American business organization. It has served as the nation’s premier place for procurement and other business opportunities for the more than 2 million Pan Asian American-owned businesses nationwide. This year’s conference chair and keynote speaker is PepsiCo Chairman & CEO Indra Nooyi.

Chrysan Industries was honored as one of Fast 100 Asian American Business Awards for 2018. Businesses receiving this prestigious award are acknowledged for their outstanding achievements as a fast-growing business in challenging economic times and epitomize the power of innovation and perseverance for robust business growth and success. “As a second-generation MBE, it is great to honor leaders and entrepreneurs in the Asian community not only locally but also nationally. We are humbled to be able to receive this prestigious honor,” says Suk-Kyu Koh, CEO of Chrysan Industries.
